SYNOPSIS

This course will be carried out over a one or two day period (flexible), lunch-time, half a day (times can vary to suit the organisation). It provides valuable knowledge for keeping staff safe. In an ever-increasing violent society we all need to know how to protect ourselves. Crime such as violent attacks, rape, theft, racist crime is on the increase. Raising awareness and providing information and practical techniques is the key to limiting an increase. Many things can be done to reduce crime and this course will give you an insight into areas you should be thinking about.
